in2law

The course aims to encourage interaction between students and major companies, such as: Azimut Benetti, Lavazza, Ferrero, DiaSorin and in2law, a multinational group specialized in executive search.

The course is addressed to students of the University of Turin – Campus Luigi Einaudi – enrolled in law studies graduate and undergraduate programmes at the last year of their university path.

The programme, coordinated by Prof. Dario Elia Tosi, provides for classes on specific topics related to the core activities of legal professionals working in company contexts. Laboratory activities will give students the chance to widen their knowledge and operational skills.

The course will benefit of the cooperation with FREE IN Jean Monnet Module funded by the European Commission within the framework of the Erasmus+ Programme.

The course is offered free of charge to a maximum of 35 students, upon registration.

Lessons will be held in English.
