

Internet Governance, Big Data and the Challenges for International Organizations organized by:

University of Torino, Department of Law
CIDOIE

(Centro Interuniversitario sul Diritto delle Organizzazioni Internazionali Economiche)

under the auspices of:
SIDI (Società italiana di diritto internazionale e dell'UE)
Interest Group on International and EU Law and New Technologies in the Information Society
SIOI (Società italiana per l'Organizzazione internazionale)
Phd Erasmus Mundus in Law, Science and Technology

Torino, 19th May 2017

Aula D1 - Campus Luigi Einaudi - Lungo Dora Siena 100

14.00 – 14.15 Opening and Institutional Greetings
(Department of Law - CIDOIE - SIOI)

14.15 – 14.30 Introductory Remarks
Prof. Alberto Oddenino (University of Torino)

Session 1 Information Technologies and International Organizations: new Models and new Forms of Governance

14.30 – 15.00 Keynote speech
Governance by Data and Algorithm: A Critical Examination
Prof. Karen Yeung (King's College, London)

15.00 – 15.30 Soft International Organizations: Hints and Tips from the Web
Prof. Gianpaolo Maria Ruotolo (University of Foggia)

15.30 – 16.15 Internet Governance, the Role of International Organizations and Private Actors: a Dialogue
Dr. Laurent Ferrali (Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers – ICANN, Geneva) and
Dr. Roxana Radu (DiploFoundation, Geneva)

16.15 – 16.45 Interventions and open discussion

16.45 – 17.00 Coffee break

Session 2 Big Data and International Organizations: Selected Issues

17.00 – 17.20 Big Data and Intellectual Property Rights
Dr. Jacopo Ciani (University of Torino)

17.20 – 17.40 Big Data and Cross-Border Data Flow in the Framework of WTO
Dr. Stefano Saluzzo (University of Valle d'Aosta)

17.40 – 18.00 Big Data and Antitrust Law
Dr. Luca Calzolari (University of Torino)

18.00 – 18.20 Rights of Data Portability and the Implications for Interoperability Concerning the Use of 'Big Health Data'
Dr. Paul Quinn (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

18.20 – 19.00 Concluding Roundtable of the SIDI - ISIL Interest Group on International and EU Law and New Technologies in the Information Society