

Thursday 28 March | Room A2

h. 14.15 – 16.45

Session I | Evolution and tools of EU sanctioning power

Chair: Stefano Montaldo, University of Turin

Models of EU law enforcement: What role for EU sanctioning powers?

Miroslava Scholten, Utrecht University

Infringement procedures and sanctions under Art. 260 TFEU: Evolution, limits and future prospects

Luca Prete, Court of Justice of the European Union and Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Sanctioning breaches of the EU's founding values: Art. 7 TEU and alternative tools

Matteo Bonelli, University of Milan

New actors on the stage: The emerging role of the EU agencies and bodies in exercising sanctioning powers

Jacopo Alberti, University of Milan

Question time

h. 16.45 – 17.15

Coffee break

h. 17.15 – 18.45

Session II | The general limits to the direct sanctioning powers of the European Union

Chair: Alberto Miglio, University of Turin

Questioning the EU sanctioning power through the lens of the principle of proportionality

Ester Herlin Karnell, Uppsala University

Fundamental Rights as constraints to the EU sanctioning power: the relevance of the Charter of Fundamental Rights and the ECHR

Nicole Lazzerini, University of Florence

EU sanctioning powers from the perspective of the law on international responsibility

Andrea Spagnolo, University of Turin

Question time

Friday 29 March | Room H1

h. 9.30 – 13.00

Session III | The European Union's sanctioning powers in practice

Chair: Francesco Costamagna, University of Turin

Restrictive measures as a tool of EU Foreign and Security Policy: From antiterrorism to country sanctions

Charlotte Beaucillon, Université de Lille

Protecting the environment through Union sanctions. The many facets of the enforcement of EU environmental law

Francesco Munari, University of Genoa

The Monetary Union and the sanctioning power of the ECB

Frédéric Allemand, University of Luxembourg, CVCE

Fines and EU competition law: ensuring deterrence within the decentralised enforcement system of Articles 101 and 102 TFEU

Luca Calzolari, University of Turin

State aid law enforcement: new trends

Francesco Pili, Van Bael & Bellis Law Firm

EU sanctioning powers and data protection: New tools for ensuring the effectiveness of the GDPR

Paul de Hert, Vrije Universiteit Brussel